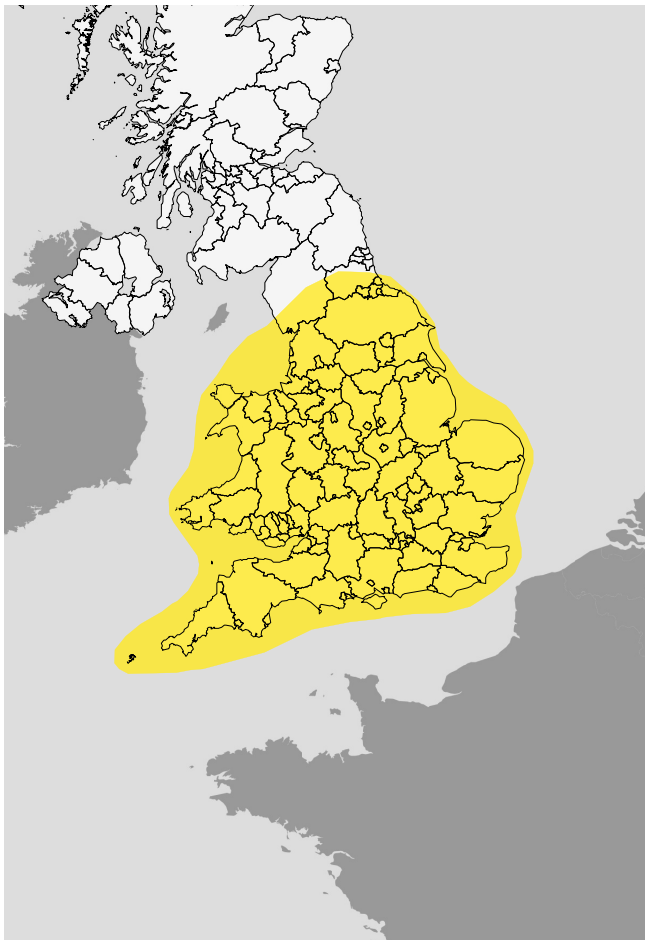
Yellow warning
Thunderstorm

Between
00:00 Mon 17 Aug 2020 and
21:00 Mon 17 Aug 2020



Further heavy showers and thunderstorms are expected at times and may lead to some flooding or travel disruption.

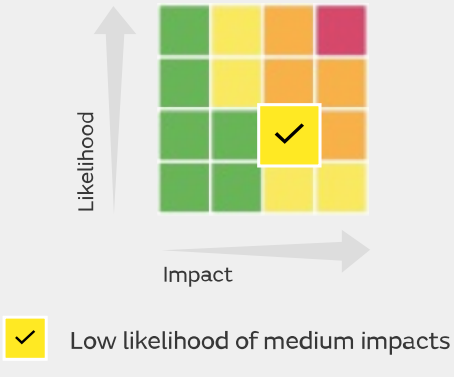
What to expect

- Spray and sudden flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Power cuts might occur and other services to some homes and businesses could be lost
- Flooding of homes and businesses could happen quite quickly, with damage to some buildings from floodwater or perhaps lightning.
- Fast-flowing or deep flood water is possible.
- Where flooding or lightning strikes occur, there is a chance of delays and some cancellations to train and bus services

Further details

Some heavy showers and thunderstorms are expected overnight, with further thunderstorms then developing across many areas of England and Wales during the late morning and afternoon, when they are likely to be slow moving.

Some places within the warning area will miss the thunderstorms altogether, but where they do occur 20-40 mm of rain may fall within an hour with 50-70 mm possible in 3 or 4 hours. Lightning, hail and possibly gusty winds will be additional hazards.



Low likelihood of medium impacts
